

Bracken Educate Together

News 22nd January 2010

Dear Parents/Guardians

Traffic problems

As you are all aware, the traffic is causing difficulties and delays for all parents. To ensure the road does not get blocked up please observe the following:

Stopping allowed in set down area only!!!

No stopping on road!!!!!!

No double parking!!!!!!

If raining do not try to get as close as possible to the school, use an umbrella to protect you from rain!

Special Invitation

All parents are invited to a presentation on improving your child's education given by Olubunmi Salako an educational expert. The presentation is on 28th January at 1pm. Further details will be sent out shortly.

Cookery Demonstration

We held a very successful cookery demonstration on healthy lunch ideas. If you would like a copy of any of the recipes, please see Hannah.

Parents- Would you like to learn Irish?

Irish classes will be starting soon in Balbriggan. If you are interested, please see Hannah. Please note – the course will require a basic level of English.

English classes in the school

Good News! Our beginners' weekly English class will be starting soon. More details to follow.

Adult Literacy Service

Fingal Adult Education Service in Balbriggan offer excellent help with reading, writing and spelling. Classes take place mornings, afternoons and evenings and are free.

For more information contact Paul Carroll directly in the Balbriggan office (near the cinema) on 01 841 7763 or see Hannah in the school.

English for Speakers of other Languages (ESOL)

Fingal Adult Education Service also offers spoken and written English classes for adults. There is a fee for this course unless you have Stamp 4 residency status. See Hannah if you would like further details.

Parent Volunteers Needed

Can you help out in the classroom?

We are looking for parents to help run short fun programmes in Maths and English.

If you are interested please return the reply slip below or see Hannah for more details.
